Long morning. Started at once to write ^{Septuagesima} 100 letters to Dean Inge and the Church. She had suggested that 214 Stuart might be insane and he certainly behaved very queerly when putting his pen up. After Church (2) talked to Mrs. Smith about her friends work on Cornish languages. While in spirits and words, etc. Mrs. Inge said C. a short journey made by Monday, 17th Nov 17, on C. & the Church & I got but very little work and a little penning.

night when she had said she would not go to Italy with us today because relations were impossible.
We people who held such opposite views. But S. said she really wanted to stay at home - wait. Her last.
G. & I left for Italy in local car about 10 AM. Stopped at frontier a few minutes away. On to Maneggio where we had lunch. Then G. & I Got up fairly early and did some more packing. Then to "Trustings" in Montreal where she got stuck at Roman Mayer had her gear coat mended and failed to get our passports ready as I can only do so in Berlin. I can give me his bill for even $100 which was so much so much that I stuck it with Sept's director and got him to take all about $50.00 so that we paid him about $25. Runon and caught by Mr. Nelson and Mr. Runon at Flumet so that we had to talk to them up and packed. To get and turn on. Then G. W. pedicure and footer came up to see hugger must be ready by 5:30 to be on mind for cut back here Thence we would be disturbed on train hurry to pedicure in our machines for gallon number but found it just as I was coming again in light. Turned back on Mrs. Gallows but too late. Packed quickly C. Hunter that we could not get all in.

Washed in train at 5:45 P. Had only up at Friday, October 8 9.15. G.O. had breakfast together. Lovely cool sunny day. Looked at paper as this it was 71.00. and I went at once to stalls and finished chores until luncheon. Got teapot etc. At luncheon and after G told me story of that Italian boat. He Giacinto which has interest but will not do for translation.

Then went back to stalls and sorted two boxes of odd and cracked crockery. Mr. Hells stopped and talked some about Russia. Got very tired and was glad to stop at his time.
After that darned my blue stockings with Thomas bagging round until Ida Carriok arrived with her Persian Sarc. Got drinks. Dressed for dinner in Peter London working class man.

Fatally launched by "Oh" "uh".
At least we did not have to eat cereal also. Mrs. Jones told G. that Peter bet her. Very nervous. Spent afternoon sorting pictures in attic hunting for Gerdon and Empire labels and Barth's flowers pictures. Brought out samples and silhouettes to sell. Had tea in cottage for Nanny's birthday. Hunted for pictures in house. Left and gave bar room and Mrs. G. suggested that they were in much flat as looking they are. Washed my hair and dressed for dinner. G. talked about his mother in a paragon of taste.
